

Henry Schein Strengthens Global Animal Health Business with Two New Executive Appointments

October 19, 2015

Newly Created Positions to Drive Growth in Pharmaceutical and Nutritional Product Sectors and Enhance Global Access to Henry Schein Products

MELVILLE, N.Y. – October 19, 2015 – Henry Schein, Inc. (NASDAQ: H SIC), the world's largest provider of health care products and services to office-based dental, animal health and medical practitioners, today announced that it has appointed Gilles Guillemette to the position of Vice President and General Manager, Global Animal Health Pharmaceutical and Nutritional Products, and Robert DiMarzo to the position of Vice President, Commercial Development and Product Category Management – Global Animal Health Group.

The newly created positions demonstrate the Company's commitment to driving growth in the critical areas of pharmaceutical and nutritional products, and to making Henry Schein products from highly respected brands such as scil animal care, Vet Instrumentation and Jorgen Kruuse A/S more available to its customers globally.

Henry Schein's animal health business has operations or affiliates in 23 countries, including the United States, Australia, New Zealand, Canada, China, Malaysia and 17 countries in Europe. In 2014, Henry Schein's Global Animal Health business had sales of approximately $2.9 billion.

Mr. Guillemette brings more than 25 years of business management experience within the animal health industry in Europe and North America. He most recently served as Vice President, Business Planning and Strategy for Bayer Health Care – Animal Health. Prior to that, he worked for Johnson & Johnson – Noramco Animal Health as Area Director – North America. After practicing small animal veterinary medicine in Nice, France, Mr. Guillemette began his career in industry at Colgate-Palmolive in its pet food division (Hill's Pet Nutrition) in France, the U.K. and the U.S.

"Gilles' experience in the animal health industry, both as a veterinarian and as a business leader, makes him the ideal person to build on our pharmaceutical and nutritional product strategy and grow Henry Schein's presence in these important sectors," said Peter McCarthy, President, Henry Schein Global Animal Health Group. "We look forward to Gilles working closely with our current supplier partners and forging new pharmaceutical and diet partnerships. Henry Schein Animal Health is committed to delivering more high-quality products and solutions to our veterinary customers."

Mr. Guillemette earned his degree in veterinary medicine from the Nantes Veterinary School in France, where he also studied food processing engineering. He will be based in Melville, New York.

Mr. DiMarzo joins Henry Schein with more than 25 years of business management experience, serving most recently as a consultant to business and financial entities on global strategies, business development and advancing the growth of animal health and human biotechnology industries. Prior to that, he was the Executive Chairman for Ivesco Holdings, an animal health distribution company. Before entering business, he served as a United States Naval Officer and also spent time in the U.S. Peace Corps.

"Robert's unique leadership background and industry expertise will serve him well as he works to ensure that our animal health customers around the world have access to products offered by the Henry Schein companies," McCarthy said. "Each of the scil, Veterinary Instrumentation and Kruuse brands, as well as Henry Schein branded products, drive unique value propositions within veterinary clinics. Robert will lead our efforts to provide veterinarians around the world with the best possible products, services and solutions, which has long been a hallmark of Henry Schein."

Mr. DiMarzo earned an MBA in General Management, Marketing and Finance from Harvard Graduate School of Business Administration and a Bachelor of Science degree in Aquatic Biology from Brown University. He will be based in Melville, New York.
