MELVILLE, N.Y., Feb. 19, 2018 /PRNewswire/ -- Henry Schein Dental, the U.S. dental business of Henry Schein, Inc., today announced the lineup of practice solutions and presentations taking place at the company's exhibit booths and ballrooms during the Chicago Midwinter Dental Meeting (CMW) and LMT Lab Day, February 22-24, 2018. At the show, dental professionals will see the range of services they rely on from Henry Schein's network of trusted advisors, who deliver valued solutions to improve clinical outcomes and operational success.

Visitors to CMW will have the opportunity to learn about Henry Schein's commitment to helping oral health professionals navigate the world of dentistry through our digital solutions (booth #2819), Henry Schein exclusive merchandise (booth #2819), Henry Schein office design (booth #2719), and Henry Schein Practice Solutions (booth #3218). Zahn Dental, the laboratory business of Henry Schein, will be showcasing and demonstrating the new Formlabs Form Cell at LMT Lab Day at the Hyatt Regency Chicago, ballroom EF. In addition, Zahn Dental will host several lectures and clinics throughout the show.

Featured Products and Business Solutions

During CMW, Henry Schein will display digital technology solutions including scanners, milling units, 3D printers, abutment solutions, and the latest materials available from the company's digital platform, Henry Schein ConnectDental®, which represents Henry Schein's commitment to help integrate digital technology into every step of the clinical workflow, along with the education and support needed to succeed. Members of the Henry Schein Dental leadership team, as well as representatives from 3Shape, ACTEON, DEXIS, Dentsply Sirona, Formlabs, i-CAT, and Planmeca will be available to answer questions, suggest customized solutions, and demonstrate new products, such as Dentsply Sirona Hub, Air Techniques Mojave LT 3, Morita Veraview X800, and more. The company will also demonstrate exclusive products including restorative solutions from Clinician's Choice® Dental Products Inc., Laser Solutions from Precise@SHP and LTM Lasers by the CAO Group, and Pain Free Dentistry from The Wand® by Wand Dental.

Additionally, Henry Schein Business Solutions will present its lineup of new offerings as well as showcase all the solutions they offer to help practices operate a better business so dental professionals can focus on patient care. Henry Schein Financial Services will also be available to discuss the relaunch of its website for Nationwide Dental Opportunities, a full-service, job placement recruitment resource for oral health professionals.

"The digitization of dentistry has rapidly changed the way practices operate," said Tim Sullivan, President, North American Dental Group, Henry Schein. "Digital technology has expanded within the dental field, and now oral health professionals have practice management, business solutions, clinical solutions, and fabrication options that were never possible. Dental professionals can rely on Henry Schein to continue to help them harness the power of digital technology by integrating these solutions into their practices and laboratories. As a result, practices can gain efficiencies that will allow them to focus on clinical care."
