Chairman of the Board and Chief Executive Officer of Henry Schein. "This recognition is a testament to our longstanding commitment to serving the needs of society while holding ourselves to the highest ethical standards. On behalf of the more than 21,600 Team Schein Members, we are honored to be named one of the World's Most Ethical Companies for the eleventh time. We are inspired by this recognition to further advance our socially responsible and sustainable approach to business to ensure that our Company does our part to build a healthier, more inclusive, and more prosperous future for all."

Grounded in Ethisphere's proprietary Ethics Quotient®, the World's Most Ethical Companies assessment process includes more than 200 questions on culture, environmental and social practices, ethics and compliance activities, governance, diversity, and initiatives to support a strong value chain. The process serves as an operating framework to capture and codify the leading practices of organizations across industries and around the globe.

"We continue to be inspired by the World's Most Ethical Companies honorees and their dedication to integrity, sustainability, governance, and community," said Ethisphere CEO Timothy Erblich. "We congratulate Team Schein for earning the World's Most Ethical Companies designation for the eleventh year, and commend the ongoing dedication of Team Schein Members for working to advance strong, ethical governance."

Ethics & Performance

Ethisphere's 2022 Ethics Index, the collection of publicly traded companies recognized as recipients of this year's World's Most Ethical Companies designation, outperformed a comparable index of large cap companies by 24.6 percentage points over the past five calendar years.

The outperformance, which Ethisphere refers to as the "Ethics Premium," has remained consistent since Ethisphere began tracking the performance of honoree companies.
