

Henry Schein Orthodontics to Host 2023 Asian Carrière Symposium in Bangkok, Thailand

February 21, 2023

Event to Feature Industry Leaders Sharing Innovative Methods to Help Improve Practice Efficiency and the Patient Experience

MELVILLE, N.Y., February 21, 2023 — Henry Schein Orthodontics (HSO), the orthodontics business of Henry Schein, Inc. (Nasdaq: HSIC), today announced that it will host the Asian Carrière Symposium for orthodontic professionals from March 3 – 4 at the Cineconic Theater, located inside the iconic Siam Mall in Bangkok, Thailand.

The Asian Carrière Symposium will offer a rich line up of distinguished speakers who will share innovative ideas and methods to help achieve clinical and career success. Attendees will learn about brand new innovative products and clinical solutions advancing orthodontics, including the latest in treatment with aligners and combining class II correction with aligner therapy for the best in clinical results and expedited treatment.

The Symposium will feature keynote speaker Dr. Luis Carrière, a strong proponent of the Sagittal First™ philosophy and of Minimum Touch Orthodontics (MTO), an innovative treatment philosophy that blends contemporary clinical principles with advanced digital solutions in a seamless workflow, to help deliver remarkable and predictable results in less time. He will be joined by other world-renowned speakers to guide all attendees towards success in their practice, including:

- Dr. Dave Paquette;
- Dr. Miguel Matuk;
- Dr. John Kaku; and
- Dr. Ana-María Cantor.

This event will bring together leading orthodontic speakers and forward-thinking attendees in a dynamic learning environment. Fun activities, such as the Born to be Clear dinner cruise, are also planned, and included in the registration fee.
