

Henry Schein Issues Final Extension to Acquire Software of Excellence International Limited

August 22, 2007

MELVILLE, N.Y.--(BUSINESS WIRE)--Aug. 22, 2007--Henry Schein, Inc. (Nasdaq: HSIC), the largest provider of healthcare products and services to office-based practitioners in the combined North American and European markets, today extended its formal offer to acquire Software of Excellence International Ltd. (NZX: SOE) until September 29, 2007. Henry Schein is extending the offer period to provide adequate time for the remaining shareholders to submit acceptances. Henry Schein is offering to acquire Software of Excellence for NZ$2.70 per share. The offer represents a 26% premium based on the closing price of SOE shares on April 27, 2007, the last trading day prior to when Software of Excellence made public the disclosure of a potential acquisition. If completed, Henry Schein expects the transaction to be neutral to 2007 earnings and slightly accretive to 2008 earnings.

"We believe this offer represents a full and fair price for Software of Excellence shareholders, and we are encouraged that a majority of Software of Excellence shareholders have endorsed our offer," said Stanley M. Bergman, Chairman and Chief Executive Officer of Henry Schein.

Henry Schein today provided written notice to Software of Excellence that it has extended the offer period to September 29, 2007, the maximum allowable period. Software of Excellence Chief Executive Officer Brian Weatherly, and the company's largest shareholder, have already accepted Henry Schein's offer, which was first announced on July 1, 2007. To date, Henry Schein has received acceptances equal to approximately 59% of the voting rights of Software of Excellence. Henry Schein noted that in today's increasingly volatile equity markets the offer provides certainty for Software of Excellence shareholders at a price within the valuation range determined by Software of Excellence's independent advisors, and which has been unanimously recommended by Software of Excellence's Independent Directors.

Henry Schein reiterated that it has no intention of having a portion of Software of Excellence remain publicly traded. If Henry Schein does not receive sufficient acceptances to ensure that there will be no remaining publicly traded shares of Software of Excellence, it is expected to allow the offer to lapse.

In accordance with the "Safe Harbor" provisions of the Private Securities Litigation Reform Act of 1995, we provide the following cautionary remarks regarding important factors which, among others, could cause future results to differ materially from the forward-looking statements, expectations and assumptions expressed or implied herein. All forward-looking statements made by us are subject to risks and uncertainties and are not guarantees of future performance. These forward-looking statements involve known and unknown risks, uncertainties and other factors that may cause our actual results, performance and achievements, or industry results to be materially different from any future results, performance or achievements expressed or implied by such forward-looking statements. These statements are identified by the use of such terms as "may," "could," "expect," "intend," "believe," "plan," "estimate," "forecast," "project," "anticipate" or other comparable terms. A full discussion of our operations and financial condition, including factors that may affect our business and future prospects, is contained in documents we have filed with the SEC and will be contained in all subsequent periodic filings we make with the SEC. These documents identify in detail important risk factors that could cause our actual performance to differ materially from current expectations.

Risk factors and uncertainties that could cause actual results to differ materially from current and historical results include, but are not limited to: competitive factors; changes in the healthcare industry; changes in government regulations that affect us; financial risks associated with our international operations; fluctuations in quarterly earnings; our dependence on third parties for the manufacture and supply of our products; transitional challenges associated with acquisitions; financial risks associated with acquisitions; regulatory and litigation risks; the dependence on our continued product development, technical support and successful marketing in the technology segment; our dependence upon sales personnel and key customers; our dependence on our senior management; possible increases in the cost of shipping our products or other service trouble with our third-party shippers; risks from rapid technological change; risks from potential increases in variable interest rates; possible volatility of the market price of our common stock; certain provisions in our governing documents that may discourage third-party acquisitions of us; and changes in tax legislation that affect us. The order in which these factors appear should not be construed to indicate their relative importance or priority.

We caution that these factors may not be exhaustive and that many of these factors are beyond our ability to control or predict. Accordingly, forward-looking statements should not be relied upon as a prediction of actual results. We undertake no duty and have no obligation to update forward-looking statements.
