

Henry Schein Names Carolynne Borders Vice President of Investor Relations

November 28, 2012

MELVILLE, N.Y., Nov. 28, 2012 /PRNewswire/ -- Henry Schein, Inc. (NASDAQ: HSIC), the world's largest provider of health care products and services to office-based dental, medical and animal practitioners, today announced that it has appointed Carolynne Borders as Vice President of Investor Relations. In this role, Carolynne will be responsible for driving Henry Schein's strategic communications with institutional investors and the securities analyst community.

"Carolynne brings a strong track record in the development and execution of results-driven investor relations programs," said Steven Paladino, Executive Vice President and Chief Financial Officer. "Over her career, Carolynne has built a valuable network of relationships with the financial community as well as an expertise in institutional targeting, strategic acquisition communications and enhancing corporate reputation. We are pleased to have her join the Henry Schein team as we execute on our global strategy to deliver value to investors, Team Schein Members and other key stakeholders."

Ms. Borders joins Henry Schein with approximately twenty years of experience as an investor relations professional. Most recently, she served as Vice President, Investor Relations & Corporate Communications at a global designer of semiconductor products. Earlier, she held a similar role at a leading manufacturer of digital audio products. She has served as a Senior Associate at The Financial Relations Board, one of the largest investor relations agencies at the time, representing the firm's technology clientele. Ms. Borders was also co-founder and executive vice president of LI Invest, a former not-for-profit organization that promoted investment in public and private companies in the Long Island region. Carolynne earned a Bachelor of Science Degree in Business from Marist College.
