

The following is a press release issued by Henry Schein, Inc. on January 16, 2019:

HENRY SCHEIN ANNOUNCES NEW DISTRIBUTION DATE AND ANTICIPATED WHEN-ISSUED TRADING MARKET FOR SPIN-OFF OF ANIMAL HEALTH BUSINESS

MELVILLE, N.Y. – January 16, 2019 – Henry Schein, Inc. (Nasdaq: HSIC), the world’s largest provider of health care products and services to office-based dental, animal health and medical practitioners, announced today that in connection with the previously announced spin-off of its Henry Schein Animal Health Business, its Board of Directors has now changed from February 4, 2019 to February 7, 2019 the anticipated distribution date (“Distribution Date”) for the distribution of shares of HS Spinco, Inc., the new company formed to effectuate the spin-off (“Spinco”), to shareholders of record of Henry Schein common stock as of January 17, 2019 (the “Record Date”). Spinco has filed an amended registration statement on Form S-4/S-1 (the “Amended Registration Statement”) with the U.S. Securities and Exchange Commission (“SEC”), which has not yet become effective, relating to the planned spin-off and subsequent merger with Direct Vet Marketing, Inc. (d/b/a Vets First Choice), which is also anticipated to be consummated on the Distribution Date. Investors may find an electronic copy of the Amended Registration Statement by searching for HS Spinco, Inc. at www.sec.gov. The Amended Registration Statement was filed to add additional language referenced in guidance recently published by the SEC regarding the ongoing U.S. federal government shutdown.

As previously announced, Spinco intends to list its common stock on the Nasdaq Global Select Market (the “Nasdaq”) under the symbol “CVET” and will change its name to Covetrus, Inc. The spin-off will occur by way of a dividend of 0.4 of a share of Covetrus common stock for each share of Henry Schein common stock held on the Record Date. Henry Schein common stock will continue to trade on the Nasdaq under the symbol “HSIC.”

It is also now anticipated that the Amended Registration Statement will become effective no later than February 4, 2019 (assuming a continuation of the U.S. federal government shutdown), rather than January 28, 2019. Once the Amended Registration Statement becomes effective, it is anticipated that trading of Covetrus common stock will begin on a “when-issued” basis (identified by the letter “v” at the end of the trading symbol—CVETV) and such trading will continue through the Distribution Date. “Regular way” trading in Covetrus common stock will begin on the first trading day after the Distribution Date. It is also anticipated that once the Amended Registration Statement becomes effective and through the Distribution Date, there will be two markets in Henry Schein common stock: a “regular-way” market and an “ex-distribution” market (identified by the letter “v” at the end of the trading symbol—HSICV). Henry Schein common stock that trades on the regular-way market will trade with an entitlement to the Covetrus common stock to be distributed in the spin-off, and shares that trade on the ex-distribution market will trade without an entitlement to the Covetrus common stock to be distributed in the spin-off.

Following the distribution, Henry Schein intends to file with the Canada Revenue Agency (CRA) to attempt to qualify the distribution as an “eligible distribution” so that Canadian stockholders can make a special election under Section 86.1 of the Canada Income Tax Act in respect of the distribution of Spinco shares.

The proposed offering will be made only by means of a prospectus meeting the requirements of Section 10 of the Securities Act of 1933, as amended.

Forward-Looking Statements

In accordance with the “Safe Harbor” provisions of the Private Securities Litigation Reform Act of 1995, the parties provide the following cautionary remarks regarding important factors that, among others, could cause future results to differ materially from the forward-looking statements, expectations and assumptions expressed or implied herein. These statements are identified by the use of such terms as “may,” “could,” “expect,” “intend,” “believe,” “plan,” “estimate,” “forecast,” “project,” “anticipate” or other comparable terms. Such forward-looking statements include, but are not limited to, statements about the benefits of the transaction, including future financial and operating results, plans, objectives, expectations and intentions. All statements that address operating performance, events or developments that we expect or anticipate will occur in the future — including statements relating to anticipated synergies and the expected timetable for completing the proposed transaction — are forward-looking statements.

All forward-looking statements made by us are subject to risks and uncertainties and are not guarantees of future performance. Therefore, you should not rely on any of these forward-looking statements. These forward-looking statements involve known and unknown risks, uncertainties and other factors that may cause our actual results, performance and achievements or industry results to be materially different from any future results, performance or achievements expressed or implied by such forward-looking statements. For example, these forward-looking statements could be affected by factors including, without limitation, risks associated with the ability to consummate the transaction and the timing of the closing of the transaction; the ability to obtain requisite approvals; the ability to successfully integrate operations and employees; the ability to realize anticipated benefits and synergies of the transaction; the potential impact of the announcement of the transaction or consummation of the transaction on relationships, including with employees, customers and competitors; the ability to retain key personnel; the ability to achieve performance targets; changes in financial markets, interest rates and foreign currency exchange rates; and those additional risks and factors discussed in the Amended Registration Statement, including those discussed under the heading “Risk Factors” in the Amended Registration Statement. We undertake no duty and have no obligation to update any forward-looking statements contained herein.
